IN MEMORIAM

SADNESS CAME to McKeesport High School in 1956 with the deaths of Dr. Leo R. Travis, Superintendent of Schools, and Mr. E. O. McKee and Mr. James H. Lewis, members of the faculty.

Dr. Travis graduated from the University of Pittsburgh in 1928. He attended California State Teachers College and completed his education at the University of Pittsburgh where he got his A.B. degree in 1928, his M.A. in 1931, and his Ph.D. in 1945. He came to McKeesport in 1930 as a social studies teacher in the High School and in 1942 was elected principal of Fawcett Building and in 1943 of Versailles Avenue Building as well. Dr. Travis was named Secretary and Business Manager in 1948, and was elected Superintendent of Schools in 1953, the position he held when he died September 21, 1956.

Mr. McKee, a graduate of McKeesport High, received his bachelor's degree from the University of Pittsburgh in 1937, and his master's degree in 1948. He began teaching English and social studies in 1939 at George Washington School, and in 1942 commenced three years with the U. S. Army. Mr. McKee resumed teaching in 1946 at the High School with classes in U. S. History and organ. His death came on September 21, 1956.

Mr. Lewis began his teaching career in the Newcastle Schools in 1927, and came to McKeesport in 1930 as a teacher of electricity. In 1931 he received his B.A. degree from the University of Pittsburgh. Mr. Lewis taught at the High School and then at Vocational School until his death on July 21, 1946.

Best wishes
Bloody Mary

Emile de Becque (William Lapcevic) explains to Nellie (Carolyn Judkins), Captain George Brackett (George Brletic), and Commander Harbison (Robert Hart) his knowledge of the Japanese-held islands in the Pacific.

The part of Ensign Nellie Forbush was triple cast with Carolyn Judkins, JoAnn Colflesh, and Lois James. Here Lois James plays Nellie as the sailors and seabees gather around to razz Luther.

South Pacific

"SOME ENCHANTED EVENING," "There Is Nothing Like A Dame," and "Bali Ha'i" rang out through the auditorium of McKeesport High on December 12 - 15, 1956, as the A Cappella choir, directed by Mr. Richard H. Barrett, presented Rodgers and Hammerstein's famous hit "South Pacific." Attractive scenery and bright costumes combined with the hit songs to make this one of the school's most successful operettas.

"He's my little honey bun," sings Ensign Nellie Forbush (JoAnn Colflesh) as she and Luther Billis (Lanny Horn) provide the service men and women with Thanksgiving entertainment.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

ELECTED BY THE CITIZENS of McKeesport, the Board of School Directors is charged with the responsibility of operating the Public Schools. The Board selects the Superintendent as chief administrative officer.

Since September, 1956, McKeesport's Superintendent of Schools has been Mr. Arthur O. Horn. After his graduation from Franklin and Marshall College, Mr. Horn taught for two years in Jeannette. He came to McKeesport High in 1927 as a science teacher, was named principal of Fifth Avenue Building in 1929, and received his M.A. from the University of Pittsburgh in 1933. Mr. Horn became principal of Centennial Building in 1935, of George Washington in 1939, of Vocational in 1954, and of the High School in 1956.

In September, 1956, Dr. Howard C. McElroy became Director of Curriculum. Dr. McElroy graduated from Wesleyan University in 1921, received his LL.B. from Duquesne in 1927, his M.A. and Ph.D. from the University of Pittsburgh in 1927 and 1939. Beginning in 1921, he taught French in McKeesport High until he was named principal of George Washington in 1929. In 1935 he became assistant principal of the High School, and was named principal in 1939.

ADMINISTRATION ..... McKEESPORT

Mr. Shelby Erwin
Vice-Principal of the High School

Mr. Bert Johnson
Director of Vocational Education

JANUARY, 1957, marked many administrative changes in McKeesport High. Dr. Wayne E. Mason became principal of the High School. A graduate of West Virginia University in 1924, Dr. Mason joined the McKeesport Schools as a social studies teacher in 1929, became an elementary school principal in 1939, and principal of Vocational School in September, 1956.

Mr. Benjamin Disegi became principal of Vocational School, moving from Shaw Avenue School where he had served as principal since 1954. Mr. Shelby Erwin continued as the Vice-Principal of the High School, and Mr. Bert Johnson continued as Director of Vocational Education at Vocational School.

The Guidance Department, too, marked a change in January with Mr. A. James Gross

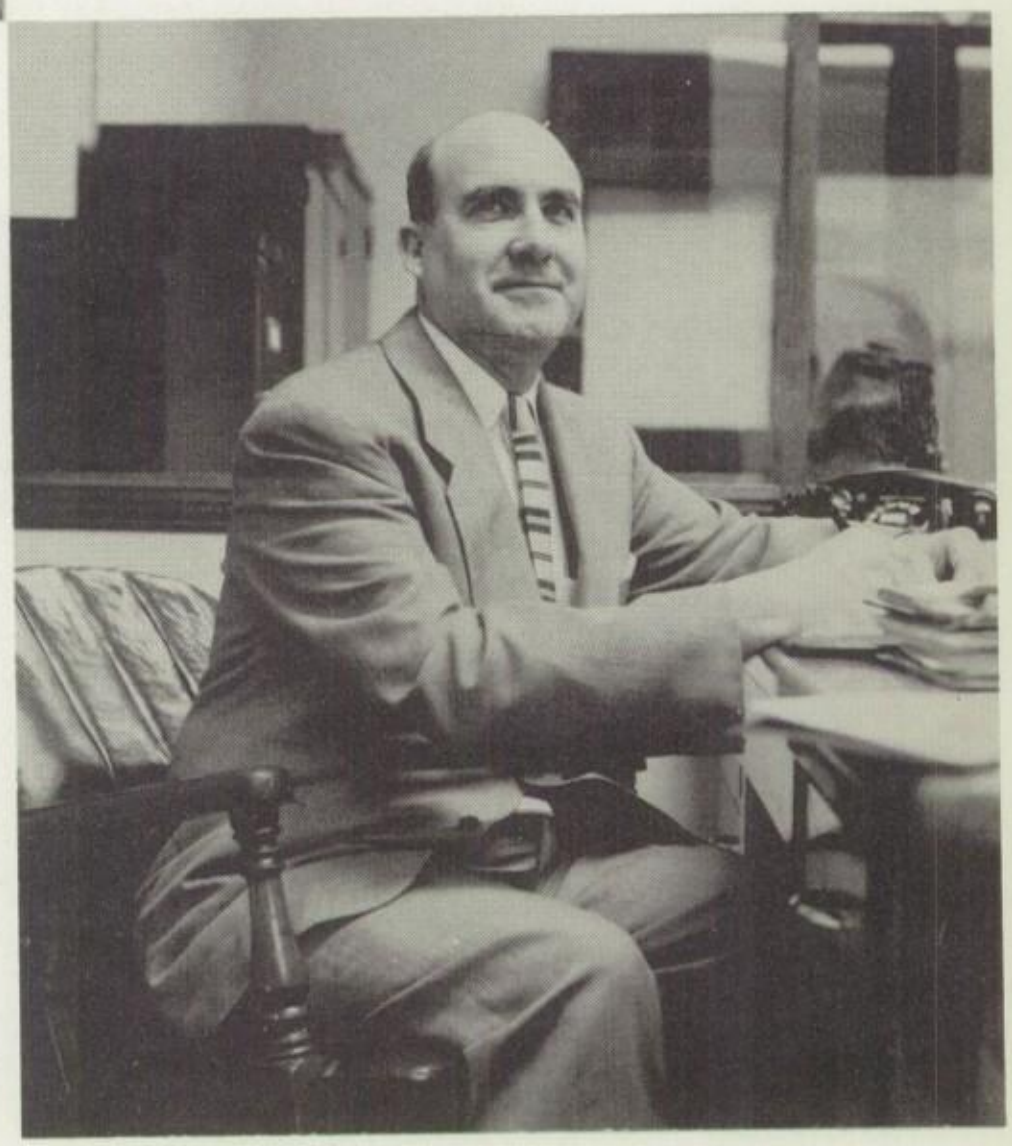
Miss Gertrude Brown
Girls' Adviser

HIGH SCHOOL . . . . . VOCATIONAL SCHOOL

Mr. John S. McFeaters
Principal of George Washington School

becoming Student Counselor; Miss Gertrude Brown continued to serve as Girls' Adviser. Mr. Gross, a graduate of Ohio University, was teacher and principal in the public schools of Amanda and Youngstown, Ohio. In 1944-1945 he was an instructor in the U. S. Navy's Bureau of Standards, and from 1946-1949, lectured in Business Administration at Duquesne University. Elected to "Who's Who In American Education" in 1948, Mr. Gross came to our Commercial Department in 1951.

Mr. J. S. McFeaters continued to serve as principal of the George Washington building, and Mr. Louis H. Dunlop joined the Administrative staff in January as principal of the Shaw Avenue building. Mr. Dunlop graduated from Allegheny College in 1928, and started teaching that year in the science department of McKeesport High. Beginning in 1931, he taught chemistry and was the head of the MHS Science Department.



Mr. Louis H. Dunlop

It's fun to be a senior . . .

IT'S GREAT to be a Senior . . . . It's a wonderful feeling . . . . Everything you've looked forward to comes true. It's your last high school year, and it's more fun than you dreamed it could be.

There's a magic about senior year that makes everything that happens just a little more important, a little more serious, a little more funny, a little more significant.

You'll always remember that sunshiny morning when you walked into your senior room for the first time, and the excitement you felt when you began translating your mixed-up schedule card.

You'll remember how proud you were, saluting the flag with your class in the first senior assembly . . . how nervous you were when you posed for your senior picture . . . and how you knew you really belonged as you moved through crowded halls from class to class . . .

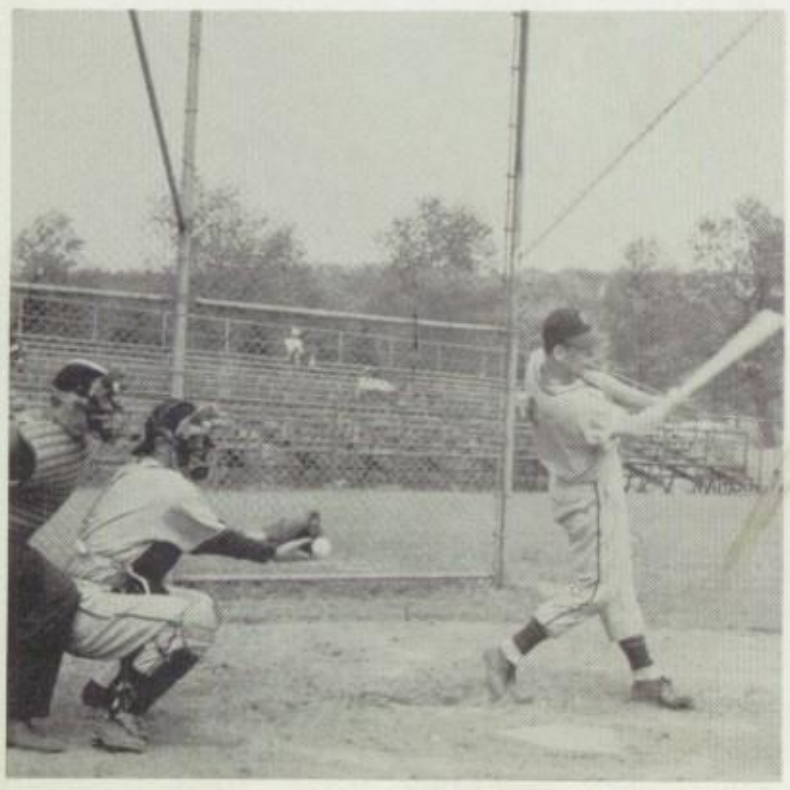
BASEBALL

DISPLAYING BRILLIANT form and good team work, Coach "Abby" Fallquist's 1956 baseball team came within two runs of maintaining the WPIAL title for the second consecutive year.

The Tigers of Har-Brack, however, were too much for the McKeesport Tigers in the final play-off game, when Har-Brack handed McKeesport a 2-0 setback. This ended McKeesport's WPIAL hopes, putting their season's record at eleven wins and two losses.

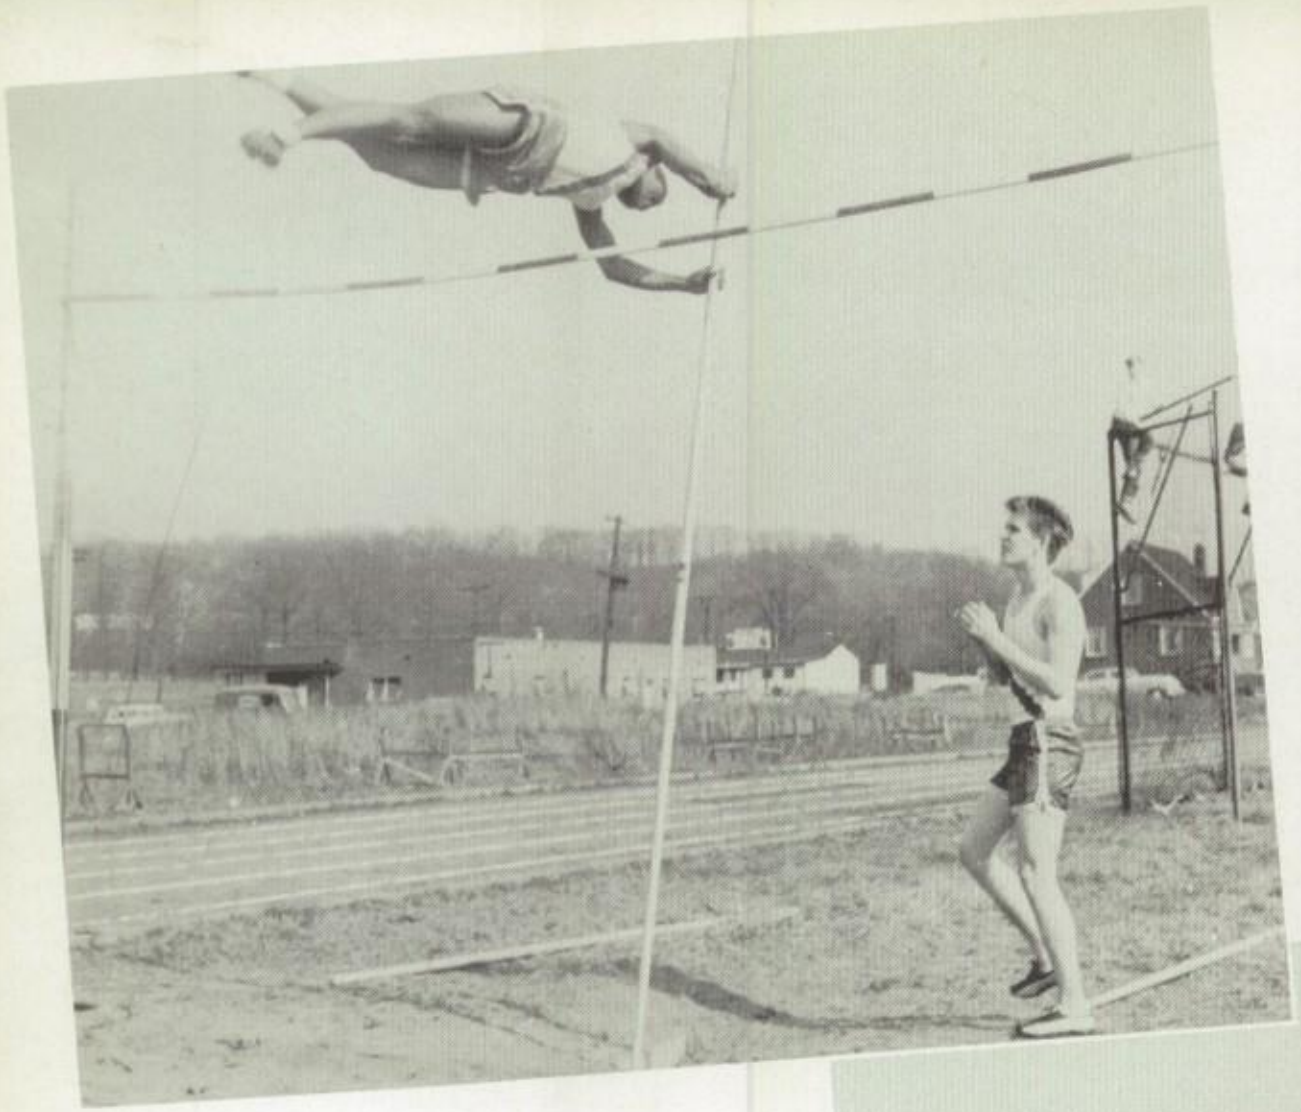
Emil Zager, the Tiger pitcher who showed terrific improvement throughout the season, hurled three one-hitters and five shut-outs. Although Ron Maser, the ace of the preceding year's tournament, pitched two winners, he remained idle most of the time due to an arm injury.

The Tiger's closest competitor in the Section 18 race was Munhall who was responsible for the only MHS defeat in the regular season. The fighting Tigers became Section 18 Champs with a percentage of .875, representing seven wins and one loss.

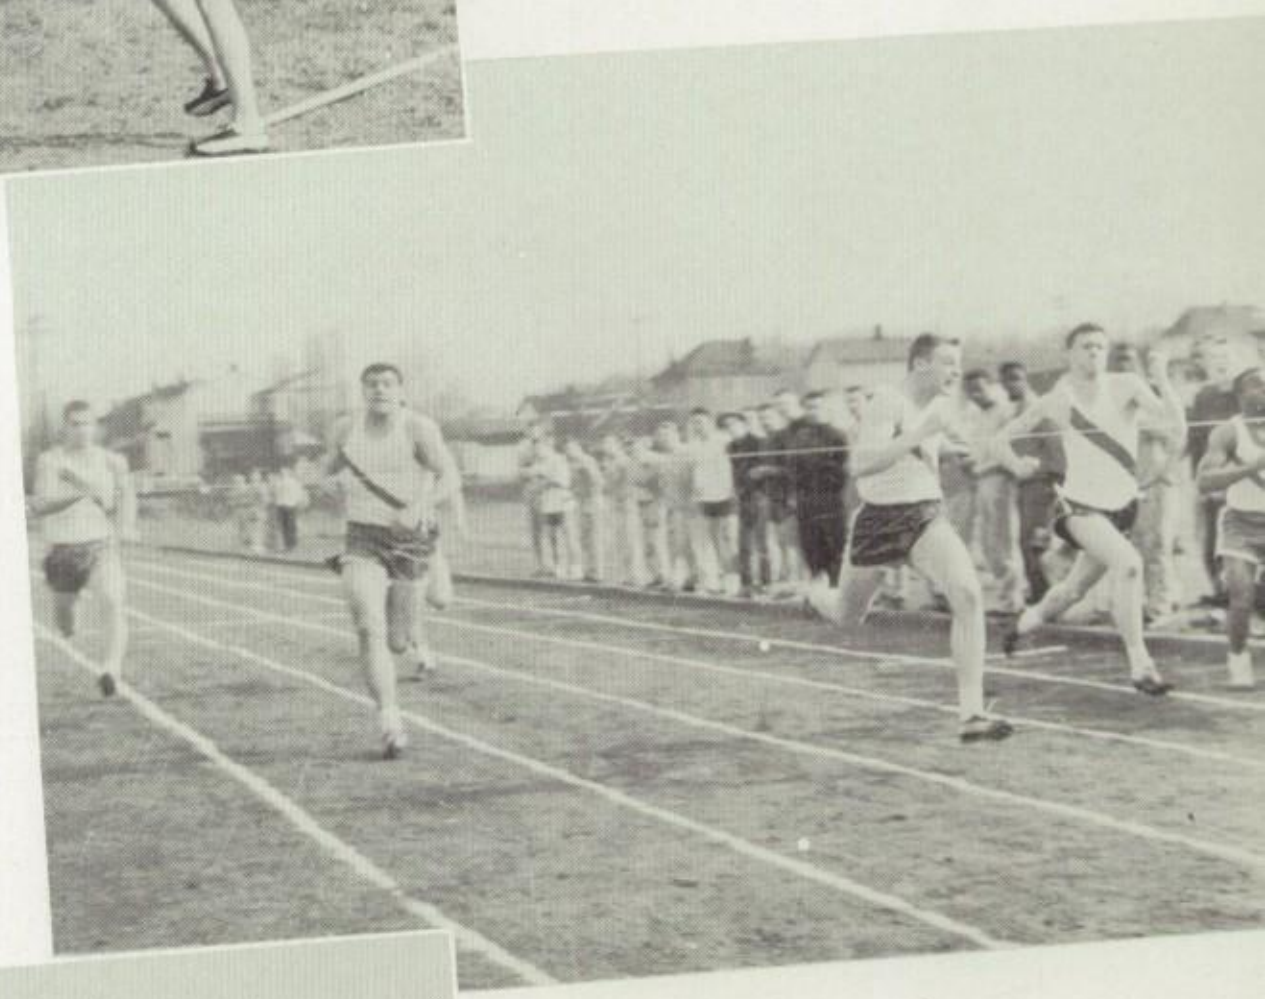


Catcher Dick Manspeaker gathers in Emil Zager's fast ball as Ritchie Lucas of Glassport swings and misses for a strike.

Bob Robb, driven in by Bill Styche, carries another Tiger run across the plate in the second game with Glassport.



Jesse Mikell makes the pole vault look like a snap as he tops the bar with ease. The ease, however, comes only from careful timing and co-ordination developed in long practice sessions.



Tiger Ross Fichtner sets a stiff pace in the 100-yard dash, leading the field in the meet with Central Catholic. Teammates following closely are Ed Kovac (second from left) and Jesse Mikell (right).

Ed Henderson soars past the spectators as he strains for a few additional inches in the broad jump. A thick layer of sawdust will cushion his landing; then the judges will use a tape to measure his jump.

TRACK AND FIELD

MC KEESPORT HIGH'S 1956 track and field team after a promising start in the first two meets remained lukewarm for a rather unexciting season.

Coach "Ding" Schaeffer's charges had their best showing in the first meet of the season when they defeated Oliver High, 86-32, and their worst when they lost to the highly regarded Mt. Lebanon Bluedevils who made a complete sweep of all fifteen events except the high jump.

After losing six consecutive meets, the Tigers registered a 66-1/3 to 56-2/3 win over Duquesne in their final meet of the season.

Ross Fichtner and Milan Dimich set the pace for the Tigers, Fichtner showing his skill in the 100 yard dash and the 440 yard run, and Dimich taking top honors in the discus toss and shot put events.

GOLF

SPRING RAINS and ambitious opponents were equally hard on Coach Campbell's 1956 golf squad. The rains brought several postponements while the opponents brought a flood of losses. The Tigers found dry land only once in ten starts, the win coming on the Youghiogheny course against North Huntingdon in the eighth match of the season when the team made their best showing with 10½ points.

FOOTBALL

Football season brought to crowds of nearly 10,000 fans, seven games packed with rugged action and half-time splendor: The action was frequently thrilling—like Jerry Moore's touchdown run (top photo) when he bolted through a wide opening at right tackle to go over for the winning T.D. in the Duquesne game. Half time drills by the Tiger Marching Band were always impressive, especially when the crowd stood to honor the playing of the MHS Alma Mater.

AA Contests

FROM THEIR DEBUT in the Glassport opener to the final frigid yards at Windber, the 1956 gridiron Tigers swept through a busy and exciting season to garner a record of six triumphs, three losses, and one tie.

The squad showed strength in both offensive charge and defensive stamina as a result of the training and planning by Coach Harold "Duke" Weigle and his assistants Charles "Ding" Shaeffer and John Liptak.

Excitement started early in the season as Central Catholic, 20 points behind at the half, staged a tremendous three touchdown comeback in the third and fourth quarters to set the final score at 27-20. One week later the defending WPIAL champs proved to be no match for the roaring Tigers, as they trounced the Aliquippa Indians, 25-6, the defense playing a big part in the triumph.

Hopes of winning the AA title were shattered when the Johnstown Trojans eliminated the

At football camp, the boys gather around Coach Weigle as he explains future strategy. Careful training results in successful plays as Manning (above right) escapes through a break in the Central Catholic defense and (below) receives a handoff with the way clear in the Aliquippa game.

Tigers from the race by a decisive five touch down victory.

With the defeat by Johnstown having no bearing on their ego, the Tigers prepared to meet their "across the river" rivals. The contest was a thriller for the spectators as the first half ended with the Tigers behind the Dukes by six points. The Dukes, however, were doomed as the tenacious Tigers showed their spunk in the third and fourth quarters to emerge victorious, 12-6. —P.G.

COACH FALCO CARROZZA'S Junior Varsity ended the 1956 season in triumph as they posted a record of five wins and no losses. Because of careful teamwork by the powerful Little Tigers, no opponent was able to score more than one touchdown against them. The greatest victory for the Techites came when they went to Wilkinsburg and crossed the goal line eight times making the final score 53-0.

UNDER THE EXPERT guidance of Coach C. P. "Neenie" Campbell, the Tigers of 1957 fought their way into the WPIAL finals in McKeesport High's most successful basketball season since 1921.

With a total record of 24 wins and 1 loss, the Campbellmen almost matched the record set in 1921 when MHS won the state championship with 24 victories and no losses. The Tigers of 1957, however, surpassed the 18-0 regular season card of 1921 with 22 victories and no defeats to win the Section 6 championship, the sixth sectional win under Coach Campbell.

McKeesport's ardent fans traveled to the Pitt Field House for the fourth consecutive year as the Tigers defeated the Uniontown Raiders in the first game of the tournament. Three days later McKeesport played Ford

City in the semi-finals; with a tremendous fourth-quarter showing the regulars added another victory to their record.

The Tigers met the Sharon Bengals on March 20 for the WPIAL championship. The game was a thriller with the lead swaying back and forth until in the last seconds of the contest, Sharon, maintaining a one-point lead, handed the Tigers their only defeat of the season.

While setting the second-best season performance in the school's history, the team also set a new record for the most points in one game by trouncing Glassport 94-44 on February 19. — P.G.

"The Big Six" gather around Coach "Neenie" Campbell to discuss their aggressive victory-bringing plays. Strategy conferences were a vital pre-game preparation.

ORGANIZATIONS

The Yough-a-Mon 1957

takes form slowly . . .
Plans are carefully made;
pictures are gathered and processed;
identifications and captions are written, typed, proofread
. . . Gradually the words and pictures are built into pages; gradually the pages grow into sections
. . . Then as the final form of the book emerges,
the details that demanded
so much time and patience are replaced by the satisfaction of capturing for a lifetime activities and scenes worth remembering.

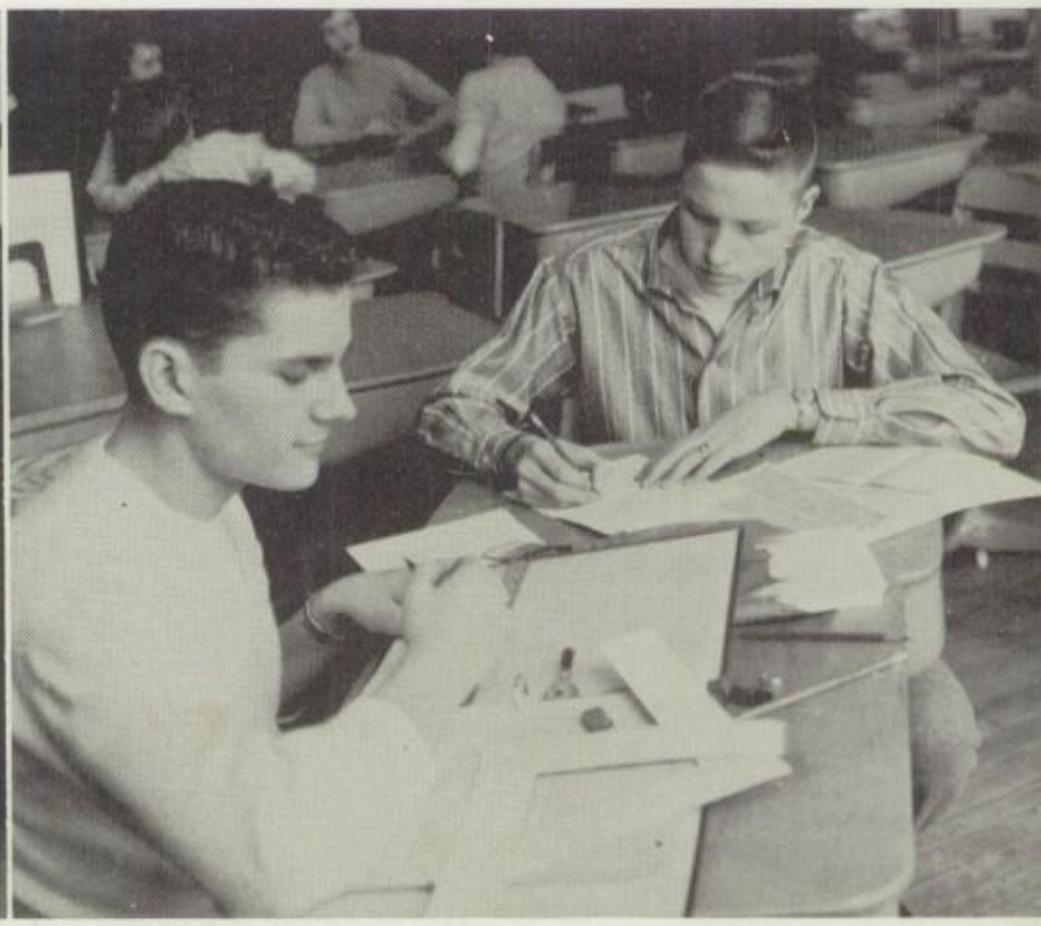
NANCY HOLMBACK
Editor-in-Chief

PAT COOK, MARY SCHONHARDT—These girls were our typists, and together they maintained the files for all sections of the Yough-A-Mon . . . Pat was kept busy with letters to the publisher and by typing copy for the Senior section and the Club section . . . Mary typed faculty and club pages, sent letters to patrons, and kept the patron accounts.



WALTER GLADKOWSKI, BOB LINDSKOG—Walter drew picture layouts for the dummy pages, prepared packages to mail to the printer, and measured pictures for size . . . Bob identified sports pictures, collected sports information, drew up schedules and scores for athletic contests, and proofread material for the final printing.

PAULINE LUGARICH, MARY ANN McGINN, CONNIE FADER, GERRY MATTHIAS — Pauline and Gerry typed the Underclasses pages, helped with seniors, prepared identification sheets for typing . . . Gerry typed letters, cut stencils, delivered messages . . . Mary Ann filed completed material and letters, was in charge of football concession accounts, prepared identification sheets, wrote captions . . . Connie assembled basketball pages, kept homeroom files in order, did research for write-ups . . . Together Mary Ann and Connie proofread typed copy, assisted in the Patron's drive, and helped in all departments.

PHYLLIS GURCSIK, ED BALOG, KAREN DULANY — Phyllis and Karen assembled the faculty section — names, pictures, appointments, page arrangements . . . Phyllis wrote feature stories for the Sports section, Feature section, Administration . . . Karen headed the Patron drive, writing letters, making trips downtown, and getting assistance from Phyllis and Ed . . . Ed helped organize picture identifications.

RON JURANN and BOB DICKINSON—Our staff members at Vocational School, Ron and Bob gathered information for the Senior section—getting names correctly spelled, courses properly listed, and pictures accurately identified. Gathering and arranging names and photos for the 702 senior portraits kept staff members active for weeks.

ELLEN SPANGLER, JOYCE SMITH, and JOYCE TOLBERT—Together these girls prepared the Senior section . . . Ellen helped get patrons, kept picture files arranged . . . Joyce Smith assisted with homerooms and clubs, read galley proofs and final page proofs . . . Joyce Tolbert did write-ups for Seniors and Organizations and the tiger drawing for sports.

SENIOR BAND

MCKEESPORT HIGH is proud of Senior Band directed by Mr. Joseph Krysik. The one hundred piece marching band with a drum major and eight majorettes performs at all football games, presenting each week a fresh half-time drill. Each new drill represents ten hours of vigorous practice.

Besides performing on the football field, the band marches in city parades on Veterans' Day, Memorial Day, and Halloween. In April, 1956, in Forensic competition, the Senior Band received the top rating of "Superior" for the eighth straight year.

The band's activities this year included a hayride in October, bake sales, a swimming party, and the Pumpkin Prom. Officers leading the band's social life were President Maryland Hardy, Vice-President Jack Forsyth, Secretary Barbara Balawajder, Treasurer Marion Perkowski, Publicity Jackie Broadbent, Art Frankie Fedas and Mary Johnson.

FEATURES

Ever Since Eve

EVER SINCE the Garden of Eden, women have been blamed for getting men into trouble. This was the theme of the 1956 Senior Class play "Ever Since Eve," directed by Miss Helen G. Malseed and presented on April 24, 25, 26 in the Vocational School Auditorium.

When Susan Blake, played by Emily Rodavich, decided that she was assistant editor of the school paper, The Penguin, editor Johnny Clover, played by Bob Zolten, and his business manager, Spud Erwin, played by Jaye Gamble, did everything in their power to thwart her.

Barbara Cherry, Toby Chotiner, and Nancy Krow played Mrs. Clover; Bill Graham, Mr. Clover; Melva Blagovich and Hilda Napolitano, Betsy; Barbara Frey and Carol Kemp, the teacher. Others in the cast were Bruce Farkas, Fred Ackerman, Don Dunlop, Judy Jacobs, Lynette Lundberg, Carl Hula, and Steve Tomko.

Out she goes chair and all as Johnny Clover and Spud Erwin decide that a newspaper office is no place for a girl.

Police Officer Simmons catches Spud and Betsy in the act of destroying the Penguin's illegal pin ball machine. From the left are Jaye Gamble, Hilda Napolitano, Bob Zolten, Bill Graham, Emily Rodavich, and Bruce Farkas.

Johnny finds it quite amusing as Betsy, Spud's impudent sister, reminds Spud that the only way to recover from the measles is to keep warm.

Lucybelle Lee, the captivating southern belle who infatuates Spud and Johnny with her charms, and Mrs. Clover revive Spud who has just fainted to avoid an argument with Preston Hughes, the captain of the football team.

THE CLASS of 1956 observed Class Day on May 23, 1956, at Renziehausen Park. Games, races, and contests highlighted the afternoon; dinner was served in Vocational School; a dance and a bonfire in the evening completed the celebration.

WEIRD FACES haunt Walter Gladkowski in a series of dreams which were part of the original play "The Girl Next Door," presented by the Yough-A-Mon staff members. The play launched the subscription campaign for the 1957 yearbook.

TIME OUT between square dances finds Kathy Metcalf and Milan Dimich feeding the prize ducks at the Student Council's gala Sadie Hawkin's Dance held on February 28, 1957.

JOKES AND SONGS characterized the minstrel show presented by the Vocational Glee Club on May 11, 1956, under the direction of Mr. Winfield S. Harding.

A lavender scented fountain, lilac bushes, and rose arbors tell one that it is "Lilac Time." This was the theme of the 1956 Senior Prom, held on May 25, in the Vocational School gymnasium.

Mr. Ugly Man of 1956 (left) . . . Janis Benedict bestows the title on Milan Dimich . . . The contest was sponsored by the Junior Red Cross in a money-raising drive.

"Deck the halls with boughs of holly . . . " The spirit of Christmas was accented as members of the Student Council adorned the halls with yuletide decorations.

"McKeesport Sings" as vocal and instrumental groups from grade schools and high schools participated in the 1956 Spring Music Festival. This pageant showed nationalities, traditions, and customs of music that are part of McKeesport's heritage.

It's tea and cookies for the faculty as students of the Homemaking Department serve teachers at the Faculty Christmas Tea on December 18, 1956.

DAYS ARE ALWAYS MOVING

Vice Principal

Mr. Harry C. Pry resigned as Student Counselor at McKeesport High on January 25, 1956, to become the Vice-Principal of Har-Brack Senior High School in Brackenridge, Pennsylvania. Graduating from the University of Pittsburgh in 1933, Mr. Pry began teaching English at the George Washington building in 1934, and four years later came to the High School Building. As a Communications Officer in the United States Navy, Mr. Pry served his country from 1944-1946, and resumed his teaching career in 1947. He became Student Counselor of the high school in 1954.

In Memoriam

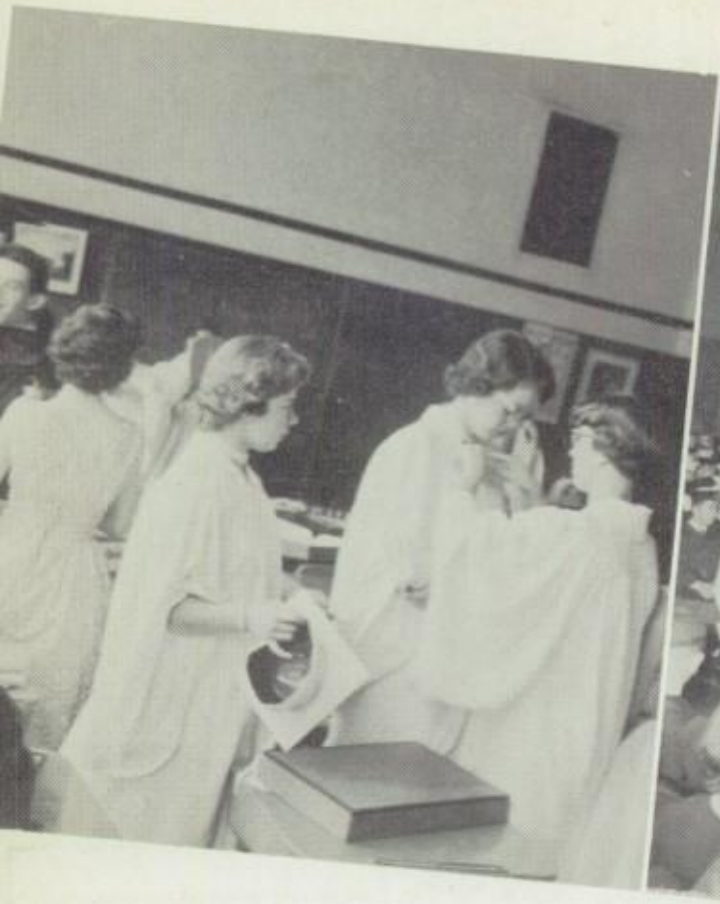
CARL GORDON BUSH

Gordon, a junior from Room 308, was born on May 2, 1940. He died on December 13, 1956.

Ideal Seniors

Their ideals . . . Joan Manning is crowned "Ideal Girl of the Class of 1956" by Bob Virostek, president of the John Shaw Hi-Y . . . Bob, who was also Class President, was the seniors' choice for "Ideal Boy" . . . The ceremonies took place at the Commencement Ball sponsored by the Hi-Y on June 5, 1956.

GRADUATION, 1956



ON JUNE 3 at the Vocational School gymnasium Graduation ceremonies for The Class of 1956 opened with the Baccalaureate Service, featuring a sermon, "The Great Essential," by Reverend Richard J. Hardman.

Diplomas were awarded on June 5 by Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Leo Travis, to 757 seniors at graduation exercises held at World War Memorial Field. The Commencement Address, "Education Is a Keystone," was given by Dr. Clara Cockerille, assistant superintendent of Armstrong County Schools, and the invocation, by Reverend H. C. Musser.

Top honors were awarded to Elaine Paulchak, first in the commercial course, Robert Nahory, first in the preparatory course, and Carole Davidson, first in vocational.
